ARTWORK SALES

Adult participants (18+) are permitted to list their work for sale through the Oil Heritage Festival Art Show. A 10% commission will be collected on all sales. Your price should reflect this amount if you elect to place your artwork for sale. Please note: Sold artwork will remain in the show until closing. Artists will receive payment for sold work by mail following the show. Please allow 6-8 weeks for processing to receive these funds. Show coordinators and sponsors are not responsible for checks after they have been mailed.

If participants in the children and young adult divisions wish to sell their work, Art Show staff will collect the appropriate contact information to facilitate these sales privately.

GENERAL RULES

1. Artwork must be original (no kits or models).
2. Previous prize-winning entries in the Oil Heritage Festival Art Show are not permitted.
3. Entries will not be accepted after the date of July 10, 2022.
4. Two-dimensional artwork must be framed and wired or otherwise prepared for installation upon delivery. Improperly prepared artwork will not be accepted.
5. All entries must include completed labels for the back or bottom of each piece. These labels will be provided at the registration point upon drop-off.

11. Judges' decisions are final.

YOU ARE INVITED – AND WE NEED YOU!

The Oil Heritage Festival Art Show traditionally receives over 1,000 gallery visitors each year and continues to expand. As an artist, you are invited, and we encourage you to participate in this fantastic event by volunteering as a Show Host. This is a great way to keep this show vibrant and market your work, by meeting festival participants and members of the community. If you would be willing to contribute two hours of your time to help us make this year's show another rousing success, please let us know. And feel free to bring a friend or two as well!

Thank you for being a part of the Oil Heritage Festival Art Show in 2022. If you have any questions, please contact:
